COMPETITION RULES CIMASUB 2023

The 47th edition of the CIMASUB, San Sebastián International Underwater Film Festival, to be held on 16, 17 and 18 november 2023, is organised by the Subacuáticas Real Sociedad, and aims to raise awareness of the underwater world, and raise awareness of respect and care for our seas and oceans, through the dissemination of audiovisual works. The competition for photography, short films and documentaries is announced with the following rules:

All works must be submitted using the participation form or use the FilmFreeway platform. The deadline for submitting entries is 20 June to 20 September.

In order to participate in the competition, it is essential to send the entry form duly completed, reading the rules and regulations of the competition, which will be accepted without reservation in order to be able to take part in the competition, or use the FilmFreeway platform.

The list of winners will be published in October. The results will be communicated by email, on our website cimasub.com, social networks and in the media.

AUDIOVISUAL WORKS COMPETITION

CATEGORIES:

- DOCUMENTARIES, over 15 minutes long. Recommended maximum: 45 minutes.
- SHORT FILMS, up to 15 minutes long.
 - Videos with voice-over
 - Music videos (without voice-over)

WHAT IS VALUED:

- The script: Originality, theme, argument, narrative, plot, message, etc.... The judges will especially value the adaptation of the script to show the underwater wealth or denounce the delicate situation of our oceans.
- Fauna and flora: The quantity and variety of species that appear in the work, both fauna, flora and ecosystem of the area. Also the way in which they are integrated in the script and in the work.
- Technique: The editing and post-production, image quality, lighting and resources used. Variety of shots, integration in the script, cadence, rhythm and integration of music, voice-over or effects.
- Overall impression and artistic value: Effect on the viewer. The impact produced by the work will be valued.
- Awareness-raising: The work must show ecologically denouncing content, showing the difficult situation of our oceans and their inhabitants. If possible with a positive message showing solutions to this problem.

REQUIREMENTS:

- The work should have a significant amount of underwater images or prominence of the sea.
- Only files in MP4 format with a maximum size of 15 Gb and a minimum resolution of 1920x1080 (FullHD) will be accepted.
- Each entrant may submit as many works as he/she wishes. To do so, the entry form must be completed and submitted once for each work submitted.
- A synopsis must accompany the work in order to be able to add the text in the programme and in the publications on our website and social networks.
- All works that are not voiced in Spanish must be accompanied by the script with the time code, for translation and subtitling. SRT format recommended.
- The works must be original works by the author or the production company.
- The works must be less than 2 years old.
- Scenes that are suspected of mistreatment or manipulation of the species will not be allowed.

RULES OF PROCEDURE

Enrolment in the competition will be final after receipt of the entry form or use the FilmFreeway platform.

The jury is sovereign in the awarding of prizes. The prizes may be modified according to the news provided by the sponsors of the event.

Entries considered by the jury to be advertising or of insufficient quality will not be accepted. If there are no works of sufficient quality in any of the categories, these may be declared void and the corresponding prize will not be awarded. If necessary, the winning authors will have to prove the authorship of their works at the request of the jury.

For organisational reasons and with the aim of improving communication between the organisation and the participants, the latter will be automatically subscribed to the blog of our website www.cimasub.com when they fill in the participation form, both on our website and on the Filmfreeway platform. In this way, they will receive all the latest news and updates of this edition of CIMASUB in the email address they have used to participate in the competition.

The organisers, in accordance with the rules established by copyright law, consider that the works presented at CIMASUB - Ciclo Internacional de Cine Submarino de Donostia - San Sebastián are free of any artistic property rights or any other rights that a third party may have. By virtue of their participation in CIMASUB, the authors undertake to guarantee to the organisers that the works presented are free of copyright. The responsibility for any claim that may be brought against the works submitted is solely and exclusively that of the authors. The organisers of CIMASUB can in no way be held responsible in case of dispute or litigation.

Participants authorise the duplication of their works in the CIMASUB archives and their use during the competition in Donostia-San Sebastián and in the different towns where our competition is held throughout the year, as well as being able to use them to promote CIMASUB and/or underwater, social and/or educational activities related to CIMASUB. Always quoting the author's name, but without giving rise to a royalty payment or compensation of any kind.

The jury's decisions are final. Participation in the CIMASUB - Donostia - San Sebastian International Underwater Film Festival implies acceptance of all the conditions set out in these Regulations.

The trophies and txapelas will be awarded to the winners attending the event on the last day at the closing gala. In the event of not attending the event, the trophy will be sent by post. The winners who visit us are invited to the two dinners that we will hold, if the situation allows it, during the event:

- Friday, intimate dinner for award winners and sponsors.
- Saturday, closing dinner for organisers, winners, guests, sponsors and institutions.

The prizes in products or services offered by the sponsors cannot be exchanged for their economic value.

In the event of cancellation of the event for reasons beyond the responsibility of the organisers and/or force majeure, or if any of the sponsors do not comply with the agreement established with the Ciclo Internacional de Cine Submarino, the prizes may be suspended. In the event of such a possibility, they may be postponed or replaced by others.
